

SHED SHOOK'S IDEA OF IT.

COLE AS SPEAKER AND BLAINE AS THE BIGGEST AMERICAN STATESMAN.

Of the opinion that Gen. Husted has no show and that the Bald Eagle knows it—Low for President of the Senate—He believes, also, that Blaine Could Defeat Cleveland on the Tariff Question.

"So you wish to know my opinion relative to the organization of the next Legislature?" exclaimed Mr. Sheridan Shook at the Morton House this morning. "Well, I will tell you frankly that I have not bothered myself about thinking of who is to be President pro tempore of the Senate or Speaker of the Assembly."

"I have no interest whatever in the organization of the incoming Legislature, although I see that interviews with me are constantly appearing in the newspapers. Its funny" (laughing) "the way I am being quoted."

You see I know a great many of the newspaper boys, and I meet them very often. They often interchange opinions with me, but as far as being interviewed recently on Albany matters is concerned I must say that I do not remember having been regularly interviewed."

"Sometimes I express my opinion on political matters and they quote me to newspaper men, and the first thing I know I see myself in print as the authority for certain statements."

"But you have an opinion about the organization of the next Legislature?"

"I have formed an opinion as a casual observer and on what I have heard. If you want my opinion you can have it."

"What is it, Mr. Shook?"

"Why, I think that Senator Low will be elected President pro tempore of the Senate and Fremont Cole, of Schuylers, Speaker of the Assembly."

"Then you think that Gen. Husted will not be re-elected Speaker?"

"Now, would you be surprised if I told you that I do not believe that Gen. Husted's name will be mentioned in the caucus? Really I do not believe that Gen. Husted has any chance, and I believe he knows it."

"You supported him last January for Speaker?"

"So did a good many who are not supporting him this time. As I told you before, I am not interested for or against any man for Speaker. All I know is that Mr. Cole appears to have a large majority of the Assemblymen elect in his favor."

"Have you seen Gen. Husted lately?"

"He stopped in here yesterday and chatted with me for a few minutes. Oh, yes, he seemed to be confident, but he was just as confident in 1885 when he was defeated by Erwin."

Brushing aside Republican State politics, Mr. Shook remarked: "There was a message on the tariff question that Mr. Blaine has given to the American people."

"I do, and it shows Mr. Blaine to be just what he is—the greatest living American statesman. His opinions and views have knocked President Cleveland's message on the tariff question all to pieces."

"I am more certain than ever that Mr. Blaine will be the next President. He can defeat President Cleveland on the tariff question."

NEW THEATRE FOR BOSTON.
Messrs. Abbey and Schoeffel Have Selected a Site and Will Soon Build.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BOSTON, Dec. 9.—Since Lotta decided to place her brothers in control of the Park Theatre at the expiration of the lease held by Messrs. Abbey and Schoeffel, these managers have been looking for a site for a new theatre in this city. They have been successful in their search, have bonded all the property needed, and will have a fine theatre in a central location in time for occupancy as soon as they give up the old one.

The writer has seen the plan of location, and a better site it would be almost impossible to obtain in this city. It would be easy for the managers to comply with the law regulating the building of theatres, as they will have exits and entrances on three streets.

The contracts for building, &c., have not yet been awarded, but the managers intend to build a house larger than the Park Theatre. There will be many novel features in the design of the building, and it will be one of the handsomest places of amusement in this country if the present plans are carried out.

The new theatre will be run as a combination house and will be first-class in every respect.

HAVLIN WANTS TO FIGHT.
Eli Backer Deposits $200 Forfeit for a Battle with Weir or Warren.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BOSTON, Dec. 9.—Mr. T. F. O'Rourke, backer for Jack Havlin, the well-known feather-weight, called at the Herald office yesterday afternoon and, after depositing $200, said:

"This money I wish to post as a forfeit for a match with the winner of the Weir-Warren battle which takes place at Minneapolis next Wednesday. I also wish to have a challenge read from the ring when the fight takes place to the public can be satisfied that I am not receiving that the winner is afraid of Havlin."

"In case the battle is declared a draw, my challenge is open to either or both men. If either objects to my proposition, which is for a fight to a finish with skin-tight, or two-ounce gloves, for the gate receipts or $1,000 a side, then I am open to accept any fair agreement they may wish to offer."

"I don't want anything to stand in the way of a battle. It was my intention to go to Minneapolis with Havlin, and there try to get on a match, but business necessities may prevent me, unless I am assured that a fight can be arranged."

Charged With Stealing Diamonds.
Solomon Stern, of 115 East 10th street, who was arrested on a charge of stealing $1,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry from Frederick Kaffman, of 192 Broadway, was held by Justice O'Brien, in the Tombs Police Court, this morning, to answer in the Court of General Sessions. Stern obtained the goods from the jeweler on the pretext that he had a purchaser for the goods. Detective Sergeant Bland, who brought the prisoner from Baltimore, informed the court that only one of the diamonds, of little value, had been found. While the statement was being made Robert McCarthy, of 130 West 10th street, entered court and charged that Stern had given him a worthless check for $75 just before he left the city.

It is not considered necessary, as there is an ample supply of chemicals on hand and no mine is leasing from the shaft when temporarily opened.

ALL ABOUT

Riker's American Sachet Powder
AND MORE, TOO.

All the materials from which this wonderful Sachet Powder is made are grown entirely in conservatories at Menlo Park by Edison's Electric Light, watered by "Ocean Spray."

It is manufactured on golden tablets with only tops (from Conover's), by the wealthiest ladies in the world. In evening costumes (by B. Altman & Co. of Baltimore) and in Rose Silk, cut upon the bias, with the violet over-skirts, trimmed with Little of the Valley and ten-button gloves made of "Feau de Euphraise."

Seventeen who use the Sachet Powder rise five feet six in the station of their "Best Girl" and dream they own the earth and two or three "Jim Bell" suits of clothes. Ladies who use it prefer it to one of G. G. Gunther's $1,000 smoking garments, because they always marry millions immediately, and thus have both. It cures Consumption, Asthma, Dyspepsia, "Bright's," and all fatal diseases, including a fall from a 12-story building or a railway collision. It sweetens the breath and preserves the teeth, thus beating the best Dentist in New York (Dr. G. Evans, No. 133 West 34th st.), out of a job.

It eradicates Freckles, Dandruff, Croton Bugs, Book Agents, Tramps and everything. It never fails to grow a luxuriant crop of any color hair you want on a baldy bald head, aged 70. It kept Jake from going to Singing school, and all the "boys" up in Canada took a stock with them when they Sachet-d from here. It makes a woman of 88 look like a blooming girl—no, we don't mean that, like a blooming girl of 16 Falls. It permeates the house and everything in it with the delicate and refreshing odor of Hunter's Polo.

Hugh O'Neill & Co., the best and largest dry-goods house in the United States, sold 249,156 lbs. 8 ozs. and three 25-cent packages in "Their minds eye, Horatio," or "In the pig's eye, Dromed."

Now you know about all that we know. If we hear of anything else we'll "set 'em up again."
